(a) whether Government's attention has been drawn to the Supreme Court's reported observation that "Younger Generation" in this country is "getting more and more addicted to liquor" and to many it has not only become a "fashion" to consume but an "obsession".

(b) whether Supreme Court has also expressed its surprise that some States are "encouraging unrestricted trade of liquor" in the face of Article 47;and

(c) if so. in what manner Government propose to enforce prohibition in consumption of intoxicating drinks/drugs when otherwise it is not enforceable through court of law?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF SOCIAL JUSTICE AND EMPOWERMENT (SHRIMATI SUBBULAKSHMI JAGADEESAN): (a) and (b) The observations have been reported in the media.

(c) The Ministry of Social Justice and Empowerment does not propose to enforce prohibition. It is supporting 350 NGOs under the Scheme for Prevention of Alcoholism and Substance Abuse for carrying out a wide range of awareness generation and drug demand reduction activities in various community settings including village, panchayats, schools etc. so that people may be educated on ill effects of drug abuse and climate of abstinence is built up.
